I will walk in freedom, for I have devoted myself to Your commandments. Psalms 119:45

Rest is not idleness, and to lie sometimes on the grass under trees on a summer's day, listening to the murmur of the water, or watching the clouds float across the sky, is by no means a waste of time. - John Lubbock

Seasons of Faithfulness

Scripture:

“The Lord bless you and keep you; the Lord make His face shine upon you and be gracious to you.” - Numbers 6:24–25

“Even to your old age and gray hairs I am He, I am He who will sustain you. I have made you and I will carry you; I will sustain you and I will rescue you.” - Isaiah 46:4

July often reminds us of sunshine, growth, and the fullness of summer. We look forward to the 4th of July, sitting on the porch, and long days. It’s a season when gardens flourish and the beauty of creation is on full display. In many ways, it mirrors a season of life where much has already been planted, nurtured, and harvested.

It’s easy to look back and reflect on the many years behind—both the joys and the challenges. Yet God’s Word reminds us that His care and presence do not fade with time. In fact, His promise in Isaiah assures us that even in our later years, He continues to carry and sustain us (Isaiah 46:4). We are never beyond His reach or His purpose.

Just as a summer garden still produces beauty and fruit, your life continues to hold deep meaning. Your wisdom, your stories, your faith—all of these are blessings not only to you, but to others around you. Sometimes the greatest fruit we bear is encouragement, love, and a steady example of trust in God.

Take a moment this month to rest in the blessing from Numbers 6:24-25. Picture the Lord’s face shining upon you—bringing peace, comfort, and grace. No matter what this season holds, you are seen, loved, and held securely by Him.

Prayer:

Lord, thank You for Your faithfulness through every season of life. Remind us that we are never forgotten and that You continue to guide and sustain us. Help us to find joy, peace, and purpose in each day You give us. Let Your presence shine brightly in our hearts. Amen.

In His service, Pastor Dyer
